Dear Parents/ Carers,

World Book Day

World Book Day this year is on Thursday March 4th so unfortunately we will not be able to celebrate it all together as we usually would. However, we still want to celebrate it and have a fun day celebrating our love of reading and books.

Our theme will be 'Share a Bedtime Story' so we'd like all the children at home and in school to be dressed in pyjamas, onesies and/or dressing gowns! We'll be sharing our favourite stories and books so children in school should bring their favourite story to school. Children at home will do this in their live lessons.

All children and families can take part in our 'dress a potato' project. This involves decorating a potato to be a character from a book. We cannot wait to see the photos! There are lots of ideas online, but here are a few to get you started.

We will be launching our part in the "200 million minutes" reading challenge. This means we'll be joining with children all across the world to collect 200 million minutes of reading. You can read more about it at:

<https://200millionminutes.org>

Staff will be sharing special stories with the children which will be available to watch on Google Classroom and Mr Parkinson will introduce the free 'World Book Day' books, which will be waiting for the children when they come back to school on Monday 8th March.

There will be lots more fun activities on Google Classroom, in the real classrooms and on our website so keep an eye out.

We're looking forward to sharing this celebration of reading with you all.

Mrs Webster
